

Students Vote Today In Campus Elections

"The McGill Daily is the only independent English-language newspaper in Montreal", remarks former mayor Jean Drapeau. He addressed the Daily staff at their 49th Annual Banquet Wednesday.

Twenty-four posts in McGill student government will be filled as some 6,000 eligible voters will be asked to select the candidates of their choice. Last year only 49.8 per cent chose to cast their ballots, but indications are that more will vote this time.

Actually, only eighteen positions are being contested, six having been filled by acclamation. Some 44 candidates are contesting the election.

Major offices at stake are: Students' Society President, Students' Union President (who is also Students' Society Vice-President), Women's Union President, Students' Union Women's Vice-president (also fifth member-at-large of the Women's Union), Students' Athletic Council Chairman, Women's Athletic Association President, Women's Union Secretary, Arts and Science Undergraduate Society President, and Commerce Undergraduate President for Engineering, John Duckworth was acclaimed President.

Following is a list of candidates:

Students' Society President: Zafar Khan, Stuart Smith and Morty Zuckerman.

Students' Union President: Bob Carswell, Paul Raynault, and Ward Young.

Women's Union President: Vita Land and Judi Maclean.

Students' Union Women's Vice President: Lillian Caplan, Anne Dixon, Marion Lazar, Sue Gervan, and Linda Randal.

Students' Athletics Council Chairman: Cameron Grout and Henry Mintzberg.

Women's Athletic Association President: Barbara Gatehouse and Marion MacDougall.

Women's Union Secretary: Anne Begor, Margaret Gavin, Linda L'Aventure, and Geri Sherman.

ASUS President: Stan Borenstein, Sammy Gewurz, Ron Meade.

CUS President: Howie Cohen and Ayo Junald.

Pensketches and photographs of the above candidates appear inside the paper, as does the official list of polls. Please note that an additional poll will be held in engineering, in the lobby of the McConnell Building, as well as that scheduled for the Macdonald Engineering Building.

Other candidates in the undergraduate societies were as follows:

ENGINEERING

First Vice-President: Lex Harrington, Phil Solfer, and Russel Williams.

Second Vice - President: John Eberts, Sol Mester, and Irving Spinner.

Secretary: Angelo Maravei, Laurie Rogers.

Athletics Rep.: Peter Johnstone, Ery Magasanik, Marcel Tuchner.

COMMERCE

Vice-President: Jim Hughes, Susan Luke.

Treasurer: Frank Shapira, Steve Silver, Richard Wise.

Secretaries acclaimed): Errean Low and Geoff Robinson.

ARTS AND SCIENCE

First Vice - President: Naomi Kershman, Brenda Randolph.

Second Vice-President: Harold Elman, Charles Flam, Erwin Gelfand, Ian Harris, Peter Lowndes, Doug Ritchie.

Corresponding Secretary: Rosalind Saginur, Carole Turkenik.

Treasurer: Jack Giacomelli, Franklin Shookey.

Three acclamations were recorded: recording secretary, Doreen LeBreton; Male athletic representative Morden "Cookie" Lazarus; and female athletic representative, Bertha Kalifon.

Confused Students Turn From Tories To Grits

OTTAWA Mar 1 (CUP) — Student Grits have picked up five of the eight seats dropped this year by the Tories in model parliament elections at 15 universities, giving them seven victories to five for their rivals.

Philip Goulston, president of the Canadian University Liberal Federation said yesterday that, "Students across the country are noticeably bewildered by the Tories, and more important, they are contributing actively to the Liberal party cause, as never before."

Earlier, Goulston attributed the Liberal victories to, "growing disillusionment among college students with the Diefenbaker government and to the hard work of the campus Liberals in the model parliament elections."

PARTY BREAKDOWN

Out of 905 seats at the 15 universities the Liberals hold 326,

the Conservatives 292 CCF 113, Social Credit 20, Communist 6. The splinter parties restricted to local camps were: IDIOT 24, Universal Natcrecon 21, Democratic Socialist 19, Christian Atheist 15, Canadian Fascists 12, Neo Radical 10, Independent 9, National Federal 7, Liberal Progressive 7, National Action 9, and Canada First 3.

So far the Liberals have gained victories at Memorial Dalhousie, St. F. X. Mount Allison, Manitoba, Alberta, and UBC. The Conservatives have won at Western, Queen's Carleton, McGill, and New Brunswick, while the CCF have won at Toronto. At Acadia the Democratic Socialist won out — but have now been replaced with a PC and Liberal government headed by Grits even though the Tories had more seats. Universal Natcrecon, a reform party, runs the student parliament at Saskatchewan.

MCGILL SUPREME

McGill is the only Quebec university to hold a model parliament, and in Ontario Ottawa, McMaster, Ryerson, and Assumption do not hold such elections.

Goulston added that it was particularly significant that the Liberals have won three of the four elections in the West, and in the fourth (Saskatchewan) the Liberals beat all other national parties while placing second to an independent one.

However, there seems to be some dispute between the two national headquarters as to who has won the most seats. CULF claims that it has won nine victories, including a junior college with 204 voters in the last election, and the Maritimes Model Parliament, where seats were allotted according to campus election results. The Progressive Conservative Student Federation does not accept the model parliament as a victory.

The Tories also lay claim to seven victories — one of which is a high school — and this total is not accepted by CULF, as the Grits are university federation which does not serve all students as does the PC organization.

Drapeau Accuses English Press Of Deliberately Misleading Public

"There is no such thing as a majority group in Canada," said ex-mayor Jean Drapeau Wednesday night, "we are all minorities and must learn to get along together."

Mr Drapeau was addressing the Daily annual banquet on the topic of the English-speaking press in Montreal. He denied the charge that he is "anti-English" and said that he was always ready to denounce anyone he disapproves of regardless of ethnic origin.

It is more important for the English press to be accurate than for the French, Mr. Drapeau declared, because most of the English people cannot read French and depend on the English dailies for information. The ex-mayor maintained that "I have never attacked any paper on the basis of the editorial page. Every newspaper has the right to be wrong provided it is of good faith." But he added that he could not accept inaccuracies in the news columns.

Drapeau said that he no longer reads the daily papers because they cannot always be trusted as sources of information. "If you listen to a speech and read about it in the paper next day", he continued, "you may be surprised by what you read."

Referring to an incident that "caused me great pain", Drapeau said that when he visited Paris during his term of office the Montreal Star quoted him as having said that the French Canadian population was growing fast and would soon overtake the English element. Drapeau denied having made the statement, and the Star later sent him a letter of apology. "But who knows I have this letter?" Drapeau concluded, "No one needed to tell me I was misquoted."

MISLEADING HEADS

Drapeau also criticized newspapers which use sensational and misleading headlines to increase their circulation. Since most people read the papers "between TV shows and on buses" he felt that the headlines create a more lasting impression than the stories. As an example he mentioned his opposition as mayor to the Dozois slum-clearance plan. When one Montreal daily printed a headline: "Mayor Against Slum-clearance", it gave the impression that he opposed slum clearance in general.

"If the dailies become fewer", Drapeau commented, "the situation cannot improve. But in the last few years we have seen three dailies disappear in Montreal." Drapeau said he has abandoned all hope for any betterment.

NEW SOURCES

He also criticized the monopoly of news sources by a few large international news agencies, which he said deprives newspapers and their readers of the right to choose what they consider the most reliable sources of news. "This is not good for democracy, civilization, and the citizen," he maintained.

Drapeau said that it was a known fact that the present civic administration had borrowed money and then lent it at a lower rate of interest to the Mercantile Bank, of which Councillor J.O. Asselin is a director. "Try to find that in the English press", he challenged. "I am not being anti-English for denouncing this French Canadian who makes money on the taxes you and I pay."

SZO CLEAR

The Daily was informed yesterday that contrary to information previously printed in the paper, the Student Zionist Organization was not indebted to the Students' Society. An accountancy error by Old McGill '59 was responsible, and SZO had actually paid up last year. Other indebted groups have paid up after the announcement that Students' Society privileges had been withdrawn.

PRESIDENT — STUDENTS' SOCIETY

ZAFAR KHAN

I am contesting the position of President of the Students' Society because as your President I will be in a better position to implement a student government program which I have originated this year as the Vice-President of the Society. This program, described as the NEW DEAL for Student Government envisages:

1) The earliest construction of a modern new Union architecturally designed to suit the needs of McGill Students.

2) Student Government in the past has been the exclusive concern of a few individuals, resulting in increased student apathy. Since all members of the Society, have a major stake in our own government, I shall consider mine and other campus positions primarily as service functions, for the benefit of all McGillians. Those of you who have dealt with me this year as President of the Students' Union, will recall that I have been motivated by this one desire.

3) To this end, I propose that the procedural rules of the SEC be altered so that interested students can attend and see how their interests are advanced.

4) As a former member of the Faculty I am well aware of the special needs of the Engineers. I recommend that they be given a fair share of the Society's resources.

5) Clubs and Societies are an integral part of our campus life. I shall strive to augment their capacities in accordance with the contribution they make to our Society.

6) Students are one of the most important forces in the community. Co-operation between them in relation to local and national issues is an objective for which I shall continually strive.

PEN SKETCH

Zafar Khan is a student in the School of Commerce, formerly in the Faculty of Engineering for two years. He has held the following positions: 1. Vice-President, Students' Society. 2. President, Students' Union. 3. Chairman, University Model United Nations, 1959. 4. Chairman, International House Committee. 5. President, United Nations Club, 1958-59. 6. Chairman, Awards Committee.

Because of his extensive experience in the Students' Society, his exceptional executive ability, and his approach to Student Government, we consider Zafar Khan an excellent choice as President of the Student's Society.

Committee for the candidate

STUART SMITH

If elected, I promise to serve the interests of the Students' Society to the best of my ability.

Among the projects I consider most important are: 1. A program of education regarding student Government so that every student at McGill understands the makeup of the SEC, its functions, its budget, and how our situation compares with other Universities. I feel we can incorporate into our Freshman Reception Program a few basic facts about Student Government to be learned by all Freshmen. 2. Continuation of the work with which I have already been associated, towards the establishment of a proper New Union. 3. Carrying on dignified negotiations with the Board of Governors regarding lowering of student fees. 4. A program to make committees and activities open to more students.

PEN SKETCH

We feel that Stu, a second-year Medical student, is not only the candidate with the most outstanding academic record, but also the candidate with the necessary experience, interest and sincerity to merit the position of Students' Society President. Among the positions he has held are:

1. Chairman of the New Union Committee for the past two years. 2. Vice-President of the Students' Society. 3. Students' Union President. 4. Chairman of the McGill Conference on World Affairs. 5. Arts and Science SEC representative. 6. Director of External Affairs, SEC. 7. Executive of Winter Carnival, Daily, Annual, and Debating Union.

Stu has not merely held these positions, but has performed so well that he received Gold awards from the Debating Union, Daily, and Students' Society. Academically, Stu has won the following:

1. University Scholarship. 2. W.U.S. Scholarship. 3. Keith Hutchison Memorial Scholarship. 4. Birks Scholarship and Medal. 5. Edgar A. Wilson Memorial Scholarship.

In addition Stu has twice won the Reford Cup for Public Speaking and holds the highest Debating Awards at McGill, the Gold A and Gold Key.

While in office, Stu was known to act with fairness to all campus groups and has defended the rights of small clubs before the SEC. We heartily recommend Stuart Smith for Students' Society President.

Committee for the candidate

MORTY ZUCKERMAN

The following steps are proposed to increase and improve university atmosphere, college spirit and student participation.

1. Bi-monthly Student Society Mixers, wherein Council members mix informally with all students. 2. Increased allocation of funds to the DAILY to provide more eight page issues and improve its readability. As the sole medium of communication to 8000 students, the Daily's importance cannot be overstated. 3. Student-Professor gatherings whereby up to ten students arrange to spend and evening informally with any professor. This would be tremendously enjoyable and stimulating intellectually and educationally. 4. Introduction of a college football weekend in the fall, e.g. Toronto Weekend, which would include a Revue on Friday night, a pep rally before the game and a gala ball with a major band. What with all the great parties we could begin the year with a weekend with that spirit and fun which we only have during Carnival Weekend. 5. Organization of regular student presentations, e.g. every Tuesday night, by co-ordinating the relevant bodies, e.g. Scope, Debating Union, so that this evening becomes the "thing to do" as well as an enjoyable thing to do.

Furthermore, it is proposed that the Students' Society urge: a. a federal scholarship program to undergraduates. b) Intensified planning for the New Union.

PEN SKETCH

Morty Zuckerman graduated McGill with first class honours in Economics and Political Science. He then attended the Wharton Graduate School of Business Administration on a Fellowship and there placed first on the Dean's List in the Finance Division. He is currently an Honours Student in Law.

His active interest, experience and ability in extra-curricular activities are illustrated by the following executive positions:

New Union Committee, Student Athletic Council, Intramural, Senior and Intercollegiate Debating, Chairman, Law Faculty Debating, Chairman, Inter-University Debating League, Associate Chairman, McGill Conference on World Affairs, Honorary Appointee, Scarlet Key Society, Chairman, Law Faculty Formal Ball, Chairman, McGill Winter Carnival Revue 1959, McGill Delegate, SCOA Conference in Texas, Executive Chairman, McGill Winter Carnival 1960.

In view of his exceptional administrative competence and initiative, we urge your support of Morty as the outstanding candidate for President of the Student Society.

Committee for the candidate

SECRETARY — WOMEN'S UNION

ANNE BEGOR

Anne Begor has the three capabilities essential for a secretary: efficiency, responsibility and initiative.

As the Choral Society's Membership Chairman, for two years Anne has accounted for the presence or absence of 275 members at each weekly meeting — which requires efficiency plus.

Responsible? She's been group captain, for the Women's Union

Telephone Committee and Combined Charities, served on Freshette Reception, Women's Union Penny Drive, Old McGill '59, played intercollegiate and intramural hockey (1958-60). As for initiative and creativity, she has contributed features articles to the DAILY and the Women's Union Handbook. We urge you to vote for Anne.

Committee for the candidate

MARGARET GAVIN

During two years at McGill, enthusiasm and hard work have qualified Marg for an executive position on the Women's Union. She is on the Union Board of Managers and, as the Union's Social Chairman, has proven her capabilities. Through this position she worked with the Women's Union.

Other activities include: 1) Combined Charities 2) Freshette Reception 3) Choral Society 4) Red and White Revue. Active in sports, Marg enjoys badminton, and played basketball for McGill. In addition, she is a Scholarship student.

Secretary of the Women's Union is a responsible position, requiring experience and efficiency. We feel it needs Marg.

Committee for the candidate

LINDA L'AVENTURE

Linda in her two years at McGill has participated in a wide range of campus activities and has already shown her executive ability in her positions of Secretary, World University Service; Vice-Chairman, Carnival Program Committee; and President of the Hockey Club. Her other interests include the DAILY the Annual, Blood Drive, McGill Conference on World Affairs, W.A.A., and Treasure Van.

Because of her likeable personality, her ability, and her unfailing sense of responsibility, we nominate Linda for the position of Secretary of the Women's Union.

Committee for the candidate

GERI SHERMAN

Geri is a second year Art's student. She entered McGill with a first class average from Chatham Collegiate Institute, where she served on the Students' Executive for three years.

At McGill she has been extremely active in student affairs. Among posts she has held are: Vice-Chairman of Women's Union Scholarship Raffle, Group Captain for Combined Charities, and member of the executive for the Second Year Dinner. She also served on Blood Drive Registration, McGill Open House, and Winter Carnival Debating Conference.

We, the committee for Geri Sherman, feel she possesses all qualifications for secretary, and heartily recommend her election.

Committee for the candidate.

PRESIDENT — WOMEN'S UNION

VITA LAND

I promise to work for the following:

1) continuance of the very successful year dinners on a NON PAYING basis. 2) broadening the scope of Women's Union to include more cultural activities. The Public Speaking Contest is a fine start in this direction. 3) REAL and CONCERTED efforts to bring more women — residents and non-residents — active into affairs of our Women's Union.

PEN SKETCH

Vita Land entered McGill as a University scholar and since then has devoted sincere effort to her school work as well as a variety of campus organizations. She handled publicity for this fall's Women's Union Card Party and was chairman of this term's Scholarship Raffle.

Vita holds prominent executive positions: Vice-President of the Progressive-Conservative Club, Secretary of SCOPE, and member of Hillel Governing Board; having been active as well in Open House, Blood Drive, Choral Society, Combined Charities, and Winter Carnival Debating. She is also a Red Wing.

Vita has debated frequently on campus, and is a finalist for this year's Talbot-Papineau Cup — emblematic of Public Speaking supremacy at McGill.

Because of proven executive ability and willingness to work, we feel that Vita is most qualified for the position of Women's Union President.

Committee for the candidate.

JUDI MACLEAN

The Women's Union would be a more effective organization if it had fewer activities involving greater student participation.

If elected, I intend to: 1) concentrate on one major project a year, a giant outdoor Fun Carnival in early fall, to raise money for the Scholarship Fund. 2) place greater emphasis on cultural rather than purely social activities by initiating a program of speakers, art exhibits and concerts. 3) Inform the campus of the work and purpose of Women's Union activities through the Telephone Committee and Bulletin. 4) vote on the Students' Executive Council according to the merits of an issue, with reference to its effect on women students and the whole university.

PEN SKETCH

Judi Maclean has energy and staying power to guide any enterprise through to successful completion, as her activities this year show: 1) Chairman, Women's Union Underprivileged Children's Day. 2) Social Chairman, ASUS. 3) Social Chairman, RVC. 4) Choral Society Executive. 5) Martele's. 6) Volunteer Hospital Service. 7) Red Wing Society.

In previous years, Judy managed the swimming team, served on the W.A.A. and played in "Wry and Ginger".

We feel Judi's proposals are constructive and practicable ideas which could revitalize the Women's Union. We strongly recommend her.

Committee for the candidate

PRESIDENT — STUDENTS' UNION

BOB CARSWELL

As Union President, I would do my utmost to perform all duties fairly and with an unbiased attitude.

I stand for: (a) More emphasis on the practical aspects of the Union presidency than the political. (b) Better S.E.C. — student body relations. (c) Better public relations between campus organizations and the press and radio. (d) Improvement of the physical facilities of the Union. (e) Continued striving towards a modern new Union.

PEN SKETCH

Bob Carswell is a fourth year honours student in Arts, and will be studying Law next year. His work on Union committees has given him an excellent working knowledge of the Union and its organization. He has become familiar with many of the problems of McGill clubs as host on the radio show "Spinarama". Bob has acquired experience in dealing with the public, which is invaluable to a Union President, through his publicity work for the Red & White Revue and Open House.

Bob's activities have included: (1) Member, House Operations Committee '58-'59 (2) Chairman, Union House Operations '59-'60 (3) Union Board of Managers (4) Acting Chairman of Union Board December '59 (5) Publicity Director "Got It Made". (6) Radio Publicity, Open House Revue. (7) Host on McGill's "Spinarama" radio show over CJAD.

Committee for the candidate

PAUL RAYNAULT

As Union President and Vice-President of the Student Society I would support the following: (1) Student court to regulate the power of the S.E.C. (2) Facilities in the Union for student publications such as Plumber's Pot, Balance Sheet, and A.S.U.S. News (3) The fullest use of the Union by national clubs and similar organizations (4) Appropriation from University funds, with no fee increase, to help worthwhile activities, e.g. the DAILY (5) Integration of men's and women's activities in the NEW UNION (6) Support idea of open S.E.C. meetings.

We believe that Paul Raynault has the necessary qualifications to administer the old Union efficiently and work in close cooperation with the University in the establishment of a new Union.

Paul, an Honors Mathematics student, has had experience in solving managerial problems, and is engaged in the following: (A) Past member of the Union board of Managers as Chairman of Poster Press. (B) President of the McGill Rocket Society, doing research in conjunction with Engineering and Science faculties. (C) Vice-President of (i) Society for the Advancement of Culture and Art; (ii) Bridge Club; (iii) Science-Fiction Society (D) Executive on McGill United Nations Club; publicity chairman and delegate to Model United Nations (E) Active in S.A.M., Cosmopolitan Club, C.I.L., Physics Society, and A.S.U.S. News.

PEN SKETCH

Paul, an Honors Mathematics student, has had experience in solving managerial problems, and is engaged in the following: (A) Past member of the Union board of Managers as Chairman of Poster Press. (B) President of the McGill Rocket Society, doing research in conjunction with Engineering and Science faculties. Committee for the candidate

WARD YOUNG

If elected I propose:

1) To open the Union to you, THE STUDENT, by applying Union Regulations fairly to all, thus making it impossible for any minor group to dominate the Union as in the past. 2) To inform the students on the progress of the New Union and to strive for its swifter completion. 3) To increase the efficiency of the Old Building by a thorough inquiry into all phases of Union activity. 4) To pledge myself to the best interests of the Union and the Student.

PEN SKETCH

Ward Young came to McGill in 1957 from Ridley College where he was a Prefect, Vice-President of the Students Council, and Editor of the School Magazine.

At McGill his activities have been many and varied thus providing him with valuable experience in the field of executive leadership. The following record is ample proof of his diversity: Vice-President of the Scarlet Key Society; Scarlet Key (2 years); Vice-President of the A.S.U.S.; Class President in second year; Publicity Chairman Combined Charities; Cheerleader; Vice-Chairman of Mount Royal Night; Transportation Chairman Mountain Night.

On the basis of his executive background and sincere interest, we strongly recommend Ward Young as President of the Student's Union.

McGill Liberal Club Sponsors Convention

The Quebec University Liberal Federation is holding a province-wide convention this Saturday, starting at 9 a.m. at the Centre Social, University of Montreal.

The McGill Liberal Club is organizing and running the convention with Robert Demers, a McGill law student, as chairman of the day-long convention. Simon Verne, the Quebec regional vice-president of the Canadian University Federation, and Marcel Prud'homme, president of the University of Montreal Liberal Club will be working with him.

"Problems of Youth" will be the main topic of discussion. Speakers from various young-adult organization will present their problems. The speakers will include Mr. E. A. Lowe of the Y.H.C.A. and others from la Jeunesse Ouvrière Catholique and les Jeunes Fermiers Canadiens. M. Paul-Gérin Lajoie, of the provincial Party, will address the noon banquet.

Forge Rejects To Be Found In Tuckshop

The Forge staff announces that all manuscripts which they were unable to publish will be available at the Union Tuckshop today.

An unusually large number of manuscripts including many from 1st year students were received this year, and Forge regrets having to return several extreme borderline contributions. The authors of these will be contacted shortly as to submitting material for next year's issues.

Generally speaking, Forge received a very encouraging response from student writers this year. More prose was submitted than poetry in contrast to last year when poetry predominated.

This year's issue of Forge with its new format which includes the graphic arts, will appear on sale March 14, at the Union and many of the campus buildings.

DISCUSS CONSTITUTION

One of the main articles of business will be the adoption of a revised constitution. Through question periods and discussion groups, an attempt will be made to delve into and gain more knowledge of the functional activities of the younger generation in the province of Quebec.

Resolutions and the election of officers to Provincial Federation will take place in the late afternoon. The organizers hope to have the resolutions incorporated in the Party platform for the next provincial election. This will serve to broaden the scope of the recent national convention of the University Liberal Federation, held in Ottawa last month. The problem of the expansion of the Federation, specifically, to include the fifty-seven classical colleges scattered around the province, will occupy a prominent place on the agenda. The organizers believe that there should be a greater outside awareness of the problems of youth.

Delegations are coming to Montreal from all points in the province, such as from Laval, Ottawa (containing a large Quebec student body), Sherbrooke, Bishops and Macdonald College. Within Montreal, Sir George Williams University, Loyola, Marianopolis, University of Montreal, and McGill will be represented.

A cocktail party will be held in the early evening at which all delegates will have an opportunity to meet the speakers as well as the invited members of Parliament.

Sevigny To Address Conservative Banquet

The Honourable Pierre Sevigny, the Associate Minister of Defense, will be the guest speaker at the Third Annual Dinner of the Montreal Progressive Conservative Students Federation today in Budge Hall of the Central Y.M.C.A., 1441 Drummond Street.

The dinner, sponsored by the P.C. Clubs of McGill, the University of Montreal, and Sir George Williams University, will be served at 6:30 p.m. and will be attended by some 200 students representing the eight universities of the Province of Quebec and also universities of New Brunswick and Ontario, including the entire National Executive of the P.C. Student Federation.

The banquet will be followed by a meeting of all the Montreal groups presided over by Robert Bennett, a student of Sir George Williams University.

S. A. M. Elects New Executive For 60-61

On Tuesday, March 1, elections were held for the seven executive positions in the Society for Advancement of Management. Results are as follows: President, Jon Silverman, Vice President for Commerce, Dave Elkins; Vice President for Arts and Science, Harold Elman; Vice President for Engineering, Larry Kessler; Treasurer, Stephen Silver; Recording Secretary, Rosalind Hyman; Corresponding Secretaries, Judy Kostman and Norma Markowitz.

The Union Club Room was filled with sixty S.A.M. members who voted the above executive for the year 1960-1961.

Following the elections, award certificates were given to several members in recognition of their contribution to S.A.M. during the past year.

Photos Banned

A photographic exhibition of John Max, sponsored by the school of Architecture in the new Engineering Building has created a major rumpus on the campus. The photographs and the captions have been removed.

The captions contained religious implications which were considered offensive to some people. The controversy started when a letter and an unapproved photograph, irrelevant to the exhibition, were sent by J. C. Germain and John Max to the editors of the major Montreal newspapers. The photograph brought a strong reaction as it was considered shocking and obscene. It raised a question as to the kind of exhibition the school of Architecture is supposedly putting up.

"The effect of the reaction of this bad publicity was the main cause for the decision by the staff of the school for taking down the exhibition", stated Anne-Marie Balaza, a 6th year Architecture student.

She continued by saying that the photographs were excellent and well worth being exhibited, and that the exhibition would have stayed up if not for the letter.

Removal of the exhibition brought this comment from Arnie Gelbart, 3rd year: "If the content of this exhibition is responsible for its removal, the action is unfair. The philosophic outlook implied, though perhaps disturbing to some, still has a right to be stated."

Vote as You Like, But...

Last fall, on the occasion of elections for Council representatives, we published an editorial entitled "Don't Vote". We emphasized that there was no point in voting for the principle of exercising a democratic right and that it was in fact detrimental to good campus government if one voted without prior investigation — and thorough investigation — into the merits and demerits of the candidates.

Last night and yesterday afternoon a team of Daily reporters made a representative, campus-wide survey on the Students' Society presidential race. Those polled were asked whether they had decided how they would vote, and if so, on what basis they had come to a decision. The results of our survey appear on the opposite page, and while the published remarks are not at all illuminating as to who has the best chance of winning (and are not intended to be), they do point out a renewed interest in student affairs.

This spring, it would appear a majority of students are well briefed on the names and backgrounds of the candidates. This, plus the wide interest evinced on campus over the past two weeks, lead us to predict that voting today will be the heaviest in years. In fact, we believe that over 50 per cent of those eligible will cast their votes, something which has not happened in our time. Quite the reverse of last fall, when a mere third cared enough, or felt competent enough, to vote!

Those who vote today will be faced with the responsibility of choosing the man who will lead our student government for an entire scholastic year. Taking advantage of our editorial license we should like to rephrase our admonition to voters last fall:

Vote, but make a careful study of the candidates first. Otherwise, a blank ballot would be more appropriate.

A Challenging Accusation

Last Wednesday members of the McGill Daily staff had the opportunity of hearing former mayor Jean Drapeau speak on the English-language press in Montreal. Addressing the paper's 49th Annual Banquet, he cited examples of what he termed "misrepresentation" of the facts and sometimes even omission of information which he thought the citizens of Montreal should know.

A specific example of this "omission of the facts" is very revealing, especially in reference to today's issues of the Montreal Star and the Gazette. At the banquet Mr. Drapeau recounted how he had, in a speech delivered recently in the St. Denis theatre, revealed that the City of Montreal was borrowing money in New York at 7.58 per cent and on the same day lending money to the Mercantile Bank (one of whose directors is J. O. Asselin father of a city councillor) at two per cent less. Because of the sums involved, Drapeau said this meant a substantial loss to the tax-payers of Montreal. He claimed that a copy of his speech had been released to all the city papers but challenged anyone to show him "where you can read about this in the English press".

Yesterday we were happy to read pretty accurate reporting on his Wednesday speech in both Montreal's English-language dailies, except for one thing. There was no mention of the City of Montreal's lending money to the Mercantile Bank and Drapeau's charges in connection with it.

We feel that Montreal's tax-payers and voters are entitled to an explanation of Mr. Drapeau's accusation, which is indeed grave. But more important, we feel the readers of Montreal's English-language dailies should be told of Mr. Drapeau's accusation. And we challenge either newspaper to tell us why any reference to this accusation was left out of their reports of Mr. Drapeau's speech at Wednesday's banquet.

Until and unless they do, we will be inclined to agree with Mr. Drapeau's views on the calibre of our daily press.

Letters to the Editor

Western-style Killing Much More Sanitary

Sir:

There is much forethought in a writer using a pseudonym if he is to avoid reprisals from the lunatic element in society. However, such is not my case. How would YOU abbreviate such a name as "Gaston Allessandre Smirnoffovitch Akdovitch"?

Now my name may not be as short as Mr. Otobo's but my memory isn't, either. I was not commenting on Ghana alone and neither was Mr. Attobrah. Only in recent memory I gather from my most reliable news sources that the authorities in Africa are coping with a revival of ritual killings and even cannibalism. Not that I begrudge an African be he Mau Mau or what not the privilege of loving his neighbour enough to want to eat him or his children, but I believe this is so primitive, so crude.

Why not adopt the western style: you deprive your neighbour of his right to eat, and that kills just as effectively. We sacrifice our natives to the moloch of Mammon. And it's so much more sanitary.

Gasandra.

Raison d'Etre Demanded by 27 Campus Leaders

Sir:

We choose to refer once more to the letter of February 26, written by Messrs. Mannard, Hudec, Newham, Pouliot and Sikka entitled "Postgrad. Society Insists it Exists". We have all enjoyed their amusing though inaccurate "exposé" of the activities of "obviously uninformed, apathetic graduate students", but we feel that there comes a time for every organization, when it must demand of itself a raison d'être — a justification for its existence.

We are given to understand that the Postgraduate Society has sponsored three functions during the academic year 1959-60. One of these concerning itself with a decision against this organization joining the Students' Society.

We are also given to understand that the Postgraduate Society has the use of funds to the amount of approximately 1500 dollars, and that this organization serves at most 100 graduate students out of 774 (a number almost reached by adding the number of postgraduate geologists, and graduate nurses.) One of the more serious objectives of this organization is the projected building of a postgraduate students' union. The Society is saving for this at the rate of approximately 800 dollars per annum, or whatever is left after its parties, but at this rate it will take about 100 years to collect 150,000 dollars.

We recognize full well that such an organization can, if it wishes, perform a vital function in the lives of the many postgraduate students at McGill who for various known reasons, cannot or do not participate in other available activities. It is clear, however, from information which has come to light in the past few days, that the Postgraduate Society, far from conducting its affairs in a mature manner suitable to older students with specialized interests, handles them in an irresponsible, juvenile fashion.

Once more, we do not claim that such a Society can have no function. We are merely curious as to what function it does purport to perform.

Answers to the following questions would be desirable:

- 1) What members of the student body are also members of the Postgraduate Society?
- 2) What is the procedure for providing membership?
- 3) How are the funds collected?
- 4) How are the funds used?
- 5) What is the Society's budget?
- 6) What activities does it sponsor which cater particularly to the tastes of postgraduate students? 7) Which of these activities are not otherwise available to these students elsewhere on campus? 8) What opportunities does the Postgraduate Society provide for its members to practice leadership in the long-defined spheres of university life? 9) Does the Society have a planned annual program keyed to the needs which it claims to fulfil? In other words, is an attempt made to satisfy these needs which fails? Or is no attempt made? We already know how the executive is elected; 10) If postgraduates are to be excluded from activities sponsored by the S.E.C. what alternate program will the society offer?

As representatives of campus organizations which have definite purpose, and which conduct their affairs in a manner suitable to intelligent university students, we provide this opportunity for the Postgraduate Society to present the student body with a raison d'être.

Postgrad Society Represents Only Fraction of Students

Sir:

If I had any reservations about Mr. L.E. Wolhuter and the fashion in which he purports to preside over the Postgraduate Student's Society, they have been totally dispelled by his shamefully snide letter to the Editor of March 3.

Mr. Wolhuter is well advised not to ignore the recent critical comments because they strike very closely to revealing a despicable situation. He may be under the impression that all of the recent criticism stems from considerations of Campus politics. Let me assure him that this is not so. The letter dated February 28 and signed by four other Graduate students and myself was prompted not by petty politics but by the painfully evident lack of effectiveness of the Postgraduate Student's Society during the last four years.

I will state bluntly my belief that the present Postgraduate Student's Society through its own choice represents only a fraction of the graduate students on the campus. Accordingly I question the right of this Society to make any decisions regarding the privileges of graduate students.

Mr. Wolhuter himself points out that the graduate student is under considerable pressure of work. May I respectfully suggest that this pressure makes it difficult for graduate students to wade through cluttered noticeboards every day? May I also respectfully inquire if it is expecting too much of a Society with a guaranteed budget to mail individual notices of elections to all of the persons who have contributed to that budget? If the answer to this last inquiry is "yes" I would appreciate receiving a separate receipt for the portion of my fees which supports the amusement of the "In" group. Such a receipt would be useful when income tax time rolls around as I understand charitable donations are deductible from income.

Finally let me thank the two undergraduate "gatecrashers" who were so kind as to give some indication that somebody gets some pleasure out of my two dollars.

J. E. Luce,
Ph.D. 4.

Max Exhibit Makes Spiritual Statement

Sir:

(This letter refers to John Max's Photographic Exhibition, which was shown in the McConnell Engineering Building).

I walked into the Exhibition Hall yesterday, and I was strongly impressed by the bold statement emanating from the faces and the figures pinned on the walls. I went back in the afternoon trying to find what was the statement and why was it strong.

I forgot about the titles: the shock was much less. Then I added smiling and laughing faces besides the "beat" moods, and all that was left, was only a conventional, almost ridiculous, contrast. I realized at that point that the religious texts associated with the pictures were creating the poetic mood.

The western world has not been exposed to centuries of Christianity in vain. The feelings of heroism in adversity, of truth despite the surrounding lies, of holiness next to sin, even if they are not enlivened any more by faith, have still at least value of symbol for artiminded people who value symbolism. But the four main themes exhibited seem to convey some sort of shouting scandal:

- calling saints what the Gospel called sinners.
- translating the Seven Last Words in insults,
- glorifying twelve "dirty souls",
- interpreting the way of the cross in an adventure in despair.

The treatment of the symbols seem to rely on the publicity value of the known conventional Christian concepts and feelings.

In view of this analysis, I would say that the religious reality brought back into the picture here, in order to fit into a day-to-day enclosed world, has been cut off his true dimension: which is eternity and infinity.

Actually, John Max's poem trusts religion only to the extent where his problem can borrow an emotional expression, but does not see in it any metaphysical value to solve it. I think this attitude of mind denotes some misunderstanding of the Christian facts and theology. John grasped some of the Christ's statements but failed to get the complete picture:

- that Resurrection followed Crucifixion,
- that Christ's concept of love is to give oneself,
- that sin is "happy" if it drives back to God,
- and that hate should not be the last word before one's die.

But I still want to thank John for this exhibition: he was able to carry beyond a very high quality technique, a spiritual statement that will make people not only admire photographic skill, but think in terms of human life.

by HAPPINESS HARRIET

Dear Happiness Harriet:

Every time my husband comes home, he gulps down half a quart of beer, then breaks the bottle over my head. He does this five times a week, and I am frantic. Please help me.

Bridled Murphy.

Dear Bridled:

Squeeze the beer out of your clothes and lap it up, then tactfully remind him that those bottles cost a nickel apiece. He will soon realize that seven days' accumulation will get him another one.

Happiness Harriet.

Dear Happiness Harriet:

I often have this chem lab where, just when I complete my experiment and have a perfect specimen of nitroglycerin in my flask, this co-ed sneaks up behind me, slaps me on the back and wants me to marry her. This happens often and costs me marks. What can I do?

Chem. 1970.

Dear Chem:

Marriage can be just as explosive as nitroglycerine, make no mistake about it. Next time, drop what you're doing and run, boy, run!

Happiness Harriett

Dear Happiness Harriet:

I go to a big university and am struggling through my fourth year. My father is dean, my uncle is principal, my cousins are on the Senate, and all my older sisters and brothers are either lecturers or professors. My problem is that I'm engaged, and this keeps me away from lectures. What must I do to pass and get my degree?

CHAIRMAN — S. A. C.CAMERON GROUT

The object of the S.A.C. is to encourage a high degree of participation in the athletic programme of the University. With this purpose in mind, my platform is threefold. (1) The re-examination of the effectiveness of the Freshman Athletic Programme. (2) A re-evaluation of the athletic awards system. (3) A re-generation of interest in athletics at McGill University through a strong effort to make Athletics Night more appealing to all students.

If elected I will strive, through my experience in athletics, to answer the wants and needs of the student body in the field of athletics.

PEN SKETCH

Cameron Grout, B.Sc. 3, has been actively connected with McGill's athletic programme since entering University. Having been awarded six major athletic letters, and having served on the Athletics Night executive, Cameron has shown leadership in both participation and organization. This, along with his affable personality, make him the best possible choice for this position.

Committee for the candidate

HENRY MINTZBERG

The S.A.C. is presently in a position where little is known about its organization, purposes and functions. Events such as Athletics Night, Pep Rallies, etc. must be inspected and improved. I feel that I have a thorough understanding of the situation and can do much to rectify it, working strongly and closely in conjunction with all concerned.

PEN SKETCH

The prime asset of the S.A.C. Chairman is proven administrative ability in athletics. Henry Mintzberg, a fourth year Mechanical Engineering student, has displayed capable qualities, inspiring leadership, and sound organization in the position of Sports Editor of the MCGILL DAILY and member of the S.A.C.

Henry has shown courage and understanding of the existing problems of McGill athletics in his column "KOMMENTS". In the position of S.A.C. chairman, Henry will have the opportunity to act on these problems. Henry is S.A.C. Member, Intercollegiate Athletic Council Member, Sports Editor - McGill Daily, Scarlet Key Member.

Committee for the candidate

LILLIAN CAPLAN

Lillian (B.A. 2), has participated in: 1. Women's Union Executive '60: Secretary; 2. McGill Conference on World Affairs Executive '60: Secretary; 3. Debating Union Executive '60: Chairman, Women's Debating; 4. Red and White Review '60: Costumes; 5. Novice Debating Tournament in Burlington '59; 6. Women's Union Trophy for public speaking and debating '59; 7. Winter Carnival '59; 8. Watershow '59.

The purpose of this position is to co-ordinate the Students' Union activities with those of the Women's Union.

Since Lillian has had close contact with both organizations, we feel she is most capable and qualified to handle the job.

Committee for the candidate

MARION LAZAR

The doors of R.V.C. are open to ALL female students! It is my aim to bring you closer to the activities sponsored by the Women's Union.

Having some knowledge of the effectiveness of student courts which are employed in universities as Queen's and Dartmouth, it is my desire to have this originated in the Women's Union.

PEN SKETCH

Marion has been ubiquitous around McGill for the past two years. She was affiliated with The Women's Union through her direction in the Watershow and participated both in Combine Charities as a Section Captain as well as promotion chairman for the Carnival Debating Conference.

Committee for the candidate

ANNE DIXON

Anne's enviable extracurricular record and high academic average makes her an extremely qualified candidate for the position of Women's Vice-President of the Students' Union. A third year Science student, Anne has served in an executive capacity as: Sales Manager, McGill Annual; Ticket Distribution, MCGWA; Press Releases, Winter Carnival. Anne's committee work include: Water Show, swimming, ticket sales, publicity; Reception Committee, Blood Drive; Convocation Sales; Forge Sales; Daily; Liberal Club; Winter Carnival; Promotions Committee and Cheerleaderette.

PEN SKETCH

By virtue of the fact that Anne's activities have brought her in daily contact with the Union, we fully support her.

Committee for the candidate

LINDA RANDAL

By virtue of her enthusiastic participation in varied campus activities we are certain that Linda Randal has the ability to fulfill responsibly the position of Women's Vice-President, Student's Union.

During her three years at McGill Linda has worked on Freshette Reception, Blood Drive, Winter Carnival and Red and White Revue. This year Linda is secretary of the Union Board of Managers which has enabled her to be well acquainted with the workings of the Union committees.

Because of Linda's ability and experience we feel that she is well qualified to serve as Women's Vice-President of the Students' Union.

Committee for the candidate

SUE GERVAN

By virtue of her enthusiastic participation in various campus activities, we feel that Suzanne Gervan has the ability to fulfill the responsibilities of the position of Fifth Member at Large. She has taken part in the Choral Society, Annual sales, Blood Drive, Women's Union Telephone Committee, Combined Charities, IPC Christmas Party, MOC, Fall Informal and Plumber's Ball ticket sales, Forum Night, and is presently on the Cabinet of the Student Christian Movement.

We believe that Suzanne is well qualified for this position and we strongly urge your support.

Committee for the candidate.

PRESIDENT — W. A. A.BARBARA GATEHOUSE

If elected, I will do my best to fulfill the following objectives:

1. More publicity in city newspapers; 2. Take full advantage of the new ruling on eligibility which permits conditioned students to play on intercollegiate teams and to hold positions of club presidents or managers; 3. Plan an Athletics Preview to include freshmen-sophomores as well as freshmen; 4. Revive interest in clubs in which participation has decreased; 5. Use to greater advantage the Faculty, Fraternity, and Residence Committees.

PEN SKETCH

Barbara's activities at McGill include: Intercollegiate Basketball, '57-'60; Intercity Basketball, '57-'60; Intramural Bowling, Basketball, Hockey; Figure Skating; Watershow; WAA Fraternity Representative; WAA Secretary, '59-'60. Aside from athletics, her activities have been: Treasurer Van; W.U. Bazaar; Engineer's Fall Formal; Combined Charities: Open House; Blood Drive; Chairman — Third Year Dinner. Barbara's record clearly demonstrates her ability to be President of the Women's Athletic Association. We strongly support her for this position.

Committee for the candidate

MARIAN MACDOUGALL

If elected President of the Women's Athletic Association, I will try, to the best of my ability, to accomplish the following aims:

1. Provide a successfully organized programme of recreational and competitive athletics; 2. Increase participation in individual sports through beginner's coaching in tennis, golf and skiing; 3. Encourage closer co-operation between the WAA and community; 4. Promote the intramural programme so as to ensure a sound base for intercollegiate teams.

PEN SKETCH

We feel that Marian MacDougall has personal qualities and past experience for this position. A third year Commerce student, Marian has attained executive experience, in an athletic capacity, as WAA Treasurer; Chairman, Faculty Representative Committee; First Year Representative; Commerce Athletic Representative.

As a participant, Marian has represented McGill on the Intercollegiate Tennis and Skiing Teams, three years, and the Soccer Team. She has served on the executive of Freshmen Reception, Blood Drive, Winter Carnival and is a Red Wing.

PRESIDENT — A. S. U. S.

STAN BORENSTEIN

Stanley served as co-chairman of the organization committee of the University Model United Nations for the past years. He also headed Canadian delegation to UMUN. Stanley is First Vice-President of the U.N. Club, member of the Executive of the Student U.N. Association of Canada, Treasurer of the Bridge Club, Historical Society and Hilliel. Stanley will give undergraduates an opportunity to find out more about the function of A.S.U.S. 1. By publishing a bi-weekly issue of the A.S.U.S. News. 2. By opening A.S.U.S. meetings to the Student body. 3. By redecorating the Common Room.

Committee of the candidate

SAMMY GEWURZ

The A.S.U.S. should primarily be a means by which the diverse ethnic and national clubs can meet and preserve the wealth of social relations presently being wasted. Organized tours, social events, faculty-student meetings and greater co-ordination of student activity could well achieve this end — an end which would make the A.S.U.S. worthy of representing us.

PEN SKETCH
A third year honour student in Economics and Political Science, Sammy's executive experience includes membership on the Blood Drive executive, Debating Union executive, past Vice-President of Hilliel foundation, initiator and chairman of National Clubs debating tournament, senior inter-collegiate debater and delegate to student conferences

Committee for the candidate

RON MEADE

If elected I will increase the status of the A.S.U.S. by: 1) Organizing tours and speakers. 2) Increasing the social calendar. 3) Posting minutes in the Arts Building and the P.S.C.

PEN SKETCH
Ron, in his three years at McGill, has shown exceptional interest in the activities of the A.S.U.S., being third year Class President, Business Manager of the New Years Eve Ball and the T.G.I.F. Party, and has contributed substantially to A.S.U.S. News. Ron also played Intercollegiate Rugger 1957-60, and worked on Mountain Night 1958. We, therefore, expressly recommend Ron Meade.

PRESIDENT — C. U. S.

HOWIE COHEN

Howie Cohen is respected by fellow Commerce students and wants to further their interests through CUS activities. To this end, if elected, he will organize tours, projects, sports, and other events to provide a maximum number of Commerce men with a maximum degree of interest and participation. As CUS President, he will utilize the Society's funds wisely and will introduce new and varied activities when desired by a representative cross-section of Commerce students.

Howie was Associate Sports Editor of the DAILY and on the Combined Charities executive during 1959-60.

For an active Commerce Undergraduate Society, elect Howie Cohen as President.

Committee for the candidate

AYO JUNAID

Voting Ayo Junaid as President, you ensure a satisfactory programme.

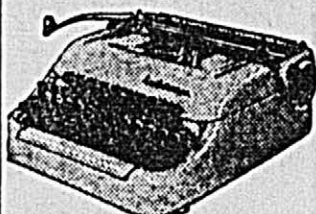

My platform is efficient service — more socials, dances, and better Balance Sheet. I will use the experience gained in business and campus affairs to serve you. A Coffee Machine at Purvis Hall and a Debates Trophy will be considered.

PEN SKETCH
Formerly a B. Sc. Economics student of London University England, Junaid transferred to McGill on a Nigerian Government Scholarship. His McGill activities include being Commerce Vice-President and debate winner; African Affairs, Chairman; Intramural Athletic Council; World Affairs Conference delegate; Universities Model UN; a wrestling champion.

We therefore recommend Ayo as President.

Intramural Highlights

by ED BIERBRIER

John Roberts last night was awarded the distinction as the best All-Round Intramural Athlete for 1959-60 by Howie Ryan, Director of Intramural Athletics.

The presentation was made at the annual intramural awards banquet under the chairmanship of Sass Khazzam. Championship squads as well as individual champions received awards. The chair man welcomed the athletes and then Howie Ryan gave the opening remarks. Addressing the large audience Ryan stated "that participation wise, through the supreme efforts of the Faculty of Dentistry, it was higher than last year by approximately eight to ten per cent . . . Leagues were conducted in touch football, basketball, volleyball, and ice hockey. A total of 214 games and over 1200 students participated although this does not consider the ratio of duplication".

MEETS, TOURNAMENTS

It was pointed out that meets and tournaments were conducted in golf, tennis, swimming, badminton, squash, handball, table tennis, riflery, fencing, track and field, harrier, and gymnastics. The director discussed the role of the McGill Outing Club, the Rifle and Pistol Club, and the Judo Club.

The Judo Club is playing host to the Inter University Meet on Saturday, March 12.

Commenting on the Intramural Ice Carnival, which was an innovation this past year and was highlighted by the Med-Law final for the hockey championship, Ryan said, "I feel this was a successful venture and next year's plans will be for a bigger and better Ice Carnival".

PRESENTATION OF AWARDS

Following Mr. Ryan, the chairman of the S.I.R.C. and the committee members i.e. the athletic representatives of the individual schools and faculties presented the awards. Each member of the executive distributed a few awards.

Many of the awards to be presented were announced in the column last week. The others include swimming where A. Halmay was presented with the Her Majesty's Theatre Trophy. Individual winners in swimming were A. Halmay, P. Halmay, M. Easdon, P. Nobbs, R. Nicolle, R. Jack, N. Eckart, and N. Herrada. Dave Hedberg and R. Bowie were announced as co-champions in golf. Ola Okulaja and L. Faltal were victors in the first and second table tennis tournaments respectively. Mitch Halperin copped the squash title while John Reddon won top honours in handball. The individual badminton champ award was taken by R. Hill.

P. C. King now has his name inscribed on the George Tully Trophy by virtue of being the Foil and Sabre champion in fencing. G. Nagy and G. Hammock the Epee and Novice Champions respectively. In addition Hammock was given the Richard Cordoza Trophy for his efforts.

The R. Tait McKenzie Trophy presented by a 1904 class was won by E. Schwarz. R. Colby was presented with the Dr. R. W. Harvey Cup while E. Schwarz and D. Hamilton were declared intramural event winners. Schwarz and Hamilton received the Wicksteed Bronze and Wicksteed Silver Medals respectively.

Special Keys were presented to the Students Intramural Recreational Council members. They were Sass Khazzam (Chairman), Mike Richards (Vice-Chairman), P. Ellis (B.Ed), M. Tarder (Architecture), D. Swales (Medicine), R. Sawchuk (Engineering), D. Stewart (Graduates), Steve Molson (Commerce), Gary Ulrich (Arts-Science), Kevin Donovan (Law), and Chuck Casey (Dentistry).

Chuck Casey went up to receive the Intramural Championship Shield for his faculty of Dentistry. Casey was elected the new chairman of the SIRC for 1960-61 with Dave Swales as his vice-chairman. The election was conducted from within the present SIRC executive.

SEASON WOUND UP

And so another year on the intramural front is ended, competition has ceased until next fall, and examinations face us. Only two events are still open, namely the Judo Meet on March 12, and the track meet in Hamilton at the end of the month. Participants in the Hamilton meet are reminded to pursue training in the Currie Gym on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays between 1-2 pm.

At this point, plenty of credit is due to all those responsible for the intramural programme this year.

In particular many thanks are to be extended to Howie Ryan, Director of Intramural Athletics and the Secretary, Diane Armstrong, who was awarded a special intramural replica for her work, at last night's banquet. In addition it is most appropriate to thank Sass Khazzam, the chairman of the SIRC and all the faculty representatives who assisted the Director.

Meanwhile, from the office down in the Union Building, we have attempted to give recognition to those who participated on the intramural level with a high calibre of skill. We hope only a few of these efforts have escaped our attention and our best is sent out in the future exams.

Basketbelles See Action

The "Bronze Baby", emblematic of women's intercollegiate basketball supremacy, will be up for grabs in the tournament being held this weekend at Queen's. McGill, Toronto, and Queen's will attempt to break Western's monopoly on the trophy, a mainstay in London for the past two years.

McGill's chances for bringing honour to the University appear to be on the bright side this year. The majority of players on the squad participated in the Senior section of the Women's Open Basketball League and came in a good second. In addition, a star Junior, in the person of Ella-May Bradley has been brought up to the Senior ranks and will add depth to the squad in her versatility as guard and forward.

Scheduled to see action up front are Ann Hewett, Nancy Reid, Barb Gatehouse, Linda Cassidy and Jean McMichael. Hewett and Reid are ex-Macdonald College players and come to McGill with plenty of experience.

Jean Taylor, Marion English, Mary Lawson, Ruth Wisse and

Joan Retallack will attempt to hold the forward lines of the opposition. Taylor is back for a second year with the team, turning in some solid performances during the WOBL season.

ANNUAL DAILY REVIEW

QUALITY PRODUCTS CONTAINING QUALITY INCO NICKEL

New nickel-chrome plated appliances so bright...so right for modern living

Beautiful designs...added conveniences in the new household appliances plated with Inco Nickel. How much easier and more efficient they make your housework. And how satisfying to know that they'll look as bright and attractive years from now as they do today.

That's the beauty of appliances plated with nickel-chrome. And their utility! They add sparkle to your kitchen. Food stains, grease and grime wipe off so easily. They won't crack, chip or deteriorate from rust and corrosion in normal use.

It's the good heavy plating of nickel under the chrome that provides the real protection against rust, corrosion and wear...helps insure lasting beauty in depth.
